

Willow have had a great first few weeks in Year 4. In our 'Potions' topic we have carried out many investigations including making unpopable bubbles, freezing balloons and testing viscosity of liquids. We have also made our own drinkable potions out of various solids and liquids!

