

During the first term, Beech became 'Urban Pioneers'! Among many other things, we compared London to Berlin, had a visit from a graffiti artist and visited Paddington Train Station. Using our newly gained knowledge on graffiti, light and train stations we designed a communal area for the station.

