

Monkey Puzzle have been exploring how to express their thoughts and feelings in Literacy through show not tell. We drew around ourselves and discussed different vocabulary and figurative language to help us describe a character from our class reader 'I Was There, 1066'.

In Topic, we have produced small sections of our own interpretation of the Bayeux Tapestry using cross stitch.

