

Week 7 in Nursery

This week we've been thinking about similarities and differences in Nursery. We've read Elmer and created our own patchwork elephants using milk bottles. We enjoyed using uni-fix cubes to create our own Elmer and we've focused on naming colours. We can't believe this half term has gone so quickly but we loved sharing what we've learnt so far during our Open Mornings this week.

