Dates for your diary:

Half Term: Monday 25th October- Friday 29th October

Friday 5th November: Class Assembly for Latimer 3

During the month of October, we are celebrating Black History. Over the course of the month, we will deliver assemblies about the background of Black History Month and the importance of celebrating diversity. The children will also be completing projects in class that will teach them about inspirational black figures linked to their current topics. Watch out for updates on our social media!

Nasal Flu Vaccinations will take place on Monday 22nd November 2021.

Your child/children have been given a consent form for your completion.

Please return the form to the school office by Friday 22nd October 2021.

Thank you for wearing a face covering when you are inside the building.
