

Maths

- Decimals
- Percentages
- Algebra

Art

- An artist study of contemporary artist, Zaria Forman who documents climate change in remote parts of the world. The children use a strict limited palette to create a work of art inspired by Antarctica

P.E.

- Football and handball

R.E.

- Theology within Christianity
-

Computing

- Simulating environments (linked to climate zones)
- Exploring how online media may affect body image

Literacy - Reading

- Call of the Wild by Jack London
- A range of comprehension activities to build on pre-existing inference and retrieval skills.
- Current affairs—First News

Literacy - Writing

- 1 x poetry writing
- 1 x narrative (alternative chapter/short story)
- 1 x diary entry (blog writing)

Science

- Light; exploring how light travels, reflection, shadows and experimenting with a variety of light sources.

PSHE

- Living in the wider world (topical issues, children's rights, community, media, global economies, & enterprise and consequences of decision making.

Geography

- physical geography, including: climate zones, biomes and vegetation belts, rivers, mountains, volcanoes and earthquakes, and the water cycle

