

Willow had a fantastic day at the Chelsea Physic Garden! We walked around the garden and learnt all about the different plants. We were able to plant our own garlic and comfrey and we even used the plants to make our own onion syrup, lavender bags and comfrey balm!

