

Sports day practice! May 2017

In PE we have begun practicing for sports day. There are lots of different activities to take part in. The space hopper race is so much fun and we need to have good balance for the egg and spoon race, but most importantly we are learning lots of team work skills.

