

Baking Bread

Fig Class - May 2017

Fig Class were very lucky this week and got to spend their afternoon in the breakfast room baking bread and making a delicious lemon dip. They measured out the ingredients they needed, talked about the steps in the recipe and worked hard to knead and mix our ingredients together. Fig Class had so much fun cooking and learnt about the importance of hygiene, following instructions and using the correct measurements.

