

Willow had so much fun building their Norman castles. We all brought in old boxes, empty bottles and other pieces of junk from our homes. By the end of the week they had been turned into castle walls, towers and keeps!

