

Robinia Class attended a sensory work shop, as part of Autism Awareness Week. They enjoyed learning all about how to manage our senses. Did you know there are two secret sense? The proprioception, which helps you know where your body is in space and the vestibular, which helps you balance. Here are some pictures of our experience.

