

Week 4 in Nursery

This week we enjoyed our first PE lessons in the hall. We've been growing more independent by trying to put our own shoes and socks on. We've enjoyed tracing our own names and looking for the initial letter of our name in flour. Our outdoor area has had a huge make over and we've loved playing in the new mud kitchen, construction zone and making sounds on the music wall.

