

Week 5 in Nursery

This week we have enjoyed reading Owl Babies and creating our own nests. We're beginning to think about how owls and humans change as they grow. We loved visiting the school diggers with Ms Stone and we recreated what we saw in the classroom. We've been busy using cups to write our own names and exploring our new finger gym! We can't believe we've already been in Nursery for five weeks!

