

Week 10 in Nursery

This week we've really enjoyed reading Lost and Found by Oliver Jeffers. A surprise parcel arrived for us and it was our own penguin! We thought about different ways to warm him up because he was covered in ice. Outside we created our own penguins and igloos! We've been developing our fine motor skills by cutting out paper fish for our penguin and creating small igloos with sugar cubes.

