World Book Day

On Thursday 1st March, for World Book Day, the children will be exploring and learning about a wide range of female authors, in commemoration of the 100 years since women got the vote. We will be actively tweeting that day too, so watch the hashtags!

In terms of dressing up, please encourage your child to dress as their favourite book character created by a female author.

Open Mornings

Thank you for attending our open mornings. The children love to share their learning and achievements with you. We mentioned on our school social media before half term that 85% of children had parent or carer present for open morning. This is brilliant attendance and shows how well we are working in partnership. At your suggestion, we have already booked this half term's open mornings and published on the website. We know that working/studying parents need notice of events such as these so we will aim to give you plenty of notice.

21st March: EYFS Open Morning

27th March: KS1 Open Morning

28th March: Year 4 Open Morning

29th March: Year 3, 5&6 Open Morning

Governor Update

It's been another busy week for our governors. This week, governors joined the staff for safeguarding training.

Governors also met Mr Mannix this week to discuss a strategy for improving our school meals. Volunteer reading also continued as usual.

Please check our school website and the class pages for regular updates:
