

Silver Birch were incredibly lucky and went on an educational visit to the Tower of London! We had the experience of going back to 1509 and finding out all about Henry VIII and his six wives. We even stood in the spot where Anne Boleyn's head was chopped off!

